

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Volunteering and community service are vital parts of the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Gladys Pullins has been an important part of many organizations' success and history in South Dakota, and with her many years of service with the Miss South Dakota pageant, housing and caring for the reigning Misses, and supporting all participants; and,

Whereas, Gladys has spent many years as a wonderful mentor and role model to the South Dakota Job's Daughters, and supporting and leading the members and adults of the organization, teaching them to lead and supporting them as they grow and lead for themselves; and,

Whereas, Gladys has dedicated many years to the Order of the Eastern Star, both in Hot Springs, South Dakota, and in the Grand Chapter of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Gladys has been a vital part of the Hot Springs community, teaching the youth in her preschool class for many years, and continuing to play the role of "Mrs. Claus" every Christmas, and she is known throughout the town as a good friend and amazing woman:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 12, 2017, as in South Dakota.

GLADYS PULLINS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs
Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State